2020 AJJ Scholarship Program

The AJJ Scholarship Fund was established in 2002 to honor Art Jones, a 1982 Hampton Bays alumnus who tragically lost his life in the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. The award was conceived by a group of Art's friends as a way of keeping his memory alive in the hearts and minds of all who knew and loved him. After graduating, Art attended Hamilton College on a basketball scholarship and ultimately worked at Carr Futures in the World Trade Center. The AJJ Scholarship is presented to outstanding graduating seniors from Hampton Bays. The criteria for selection includes, but is not limited to:

- Evidence of active community service and extra-curricular involvement;
- Academic success, defined as the "Honor Roll," with at least an 88 cumulative GPA;
- Athletic involvement on at least one Varsity team at Hampton Bays High School;
- Completion of an essay - in writing or video.
- Participation in an interview with the Scholarship Committee;
- Financial need may be taken into account;
